REPORT OF THE CHIEF OF POLICE

Chief Beck said that an officer from Rampart Division, Joy Park, was shot while conducting a pedestrian check. She was shot in an ambush style event, striking her left leg and femur. She is recovering well and will require therapy. Chief participated in the Rose Parade with Chief Girmala. Crime stats will be provided at a press conference with the Mayor on January 19, 2018.

There was an officer-involved shooting on January 8, 2018. Metropolitan officers attempted to conduct a traffic stop of a motorist driving erratically. He fled and almost collided with multiple vehicles and a stationary object. He armed himself with a fully-loaded assault weapon and pushed his upper body out of the vehicle and pointed at the officers. An officer-involved shooting occurred and six rounds were fired resulting in the death of the suspect with no injuries to the officers. That was the first fatal OIS of the year.
