Chief Beck reported the Department’s MLK day breakfast format was changed to a community event in Watts, at the AltaMed facility. President Soboroff and Vice President Johnson attended along with several hundred community members. The Department also participated in the Kingdom Day Parade in Southwest. No major incidents occurred.

An Officer-Involved Shooting (OIS) occurred on January 8, 2018, at approximately 6:00 p.m. Uniformed officers assigned to Metropolitan Division observed a vehicle travelling in a radical manner. The vehicle accelerated and lost control and proceeded to collide with a street light pole. As the officers approached the vehicle, the suspect pushed his body through the open driver’s window and produced a rifle pointing it towards officers. An OIS occurred and the suspect was struck and died at scene. No officers were injured.

On January 11, 2018, at 11:25 a.m., in Southwest Division, uniformed officers assigned to Southwest patrol were directed to the intersection of Walton and W 40th Place for a suspect of domestic violence. The officers approached the suspect who made statements consistent with being armed and/or soliciting suicide by cop. He produced an object from his pocket in a shooting stance and an OIS occurred. He was wounded and transported to a hospital where he remains seeking treatment. A cell phone was located next to the suspect which is believed to be the object he used to simulate a hand-gun.
