Board of Police Commissioners’ Review

This is a brief summary designed only to enumerate salient points regarding this Categorical Use of Force incident and does not reflect the entirety of the extensive investigation by the Los Angeles Police Department (Department) or the deliberations by the Board of Police Commissioners (BOPC). In evaluating this matter, the BOPC considered the following: the complete Force Investigation Division investigation (including all of the transcribed statements of witnesses, pertinent suspect criminal history, and addenda items); the relevant Training Evaluation and Management System materials of the involved officers; the Use of Force Review Board recommendations; the report and recommendations of the Chief of Police; and the report and recommendations of the Inspector General. The Department Command Staff presented the matter to the BOPC and made itself available for any inquiries by the BOPC.

Because state law prohibits divulging the identity of police officers in public reports, the masculine pronouns (he, his, and him) will be used in this report in situations where the referent could in actuality be either male or female.

The following incident was adjudicated by the BOPC on June 22, 2010

Incident Summary

Officers A and B arrived at a residence to assist in the service of a search warrant. The officers were searching the backyard when Officer B heard a rustling noise emanating from inside a storage area. Officer B alerted Officer A to the noise and the officers approached the door to the storage area. Officer B told whoever was inside the storage area to come out, but no one responded, so Officer B opened the door and saw a Rottweiler, which ran towards the open door. Officer B attempted to close the door, but the dog’s head got caught between the door and the frame. Officer B then released the door to seek cover inside the residence. The dog ran out the door toward Officer A as he was attempting to find cover. The dog was less than a foot away and was barking, growling, and snarling its teeth at Officer A. Officer A drew his pistol and fired one round at the dog, striking it in the left paw. The dog then ran away.

Los Angeles Board of Police Commissioners’ Findings

The BOPC reviews each Categorical Use of Force incident based upon the totality of the circumstances, namely all of the facts, evidence, statements and all other pertinent material relating to the particular incident. In every case, the BOPC makes specific findings in three areas: Tactics of the involved officer(s); Drawing/Exhibiting/Holstering of a weapon by any involved officer(s); and the Use of Force by any involved officer(s). All incidents are evaluated to identify areas where involved officers can benefit from a tactical debriefing to improve their response to future tactical situations. This is an effort to ensure that all officers benefit from the critical analysis that is applied to each incident as it is reviewed by various levels within the Department and by the BOPC. Based on the BOPC’s review of the instant case, the BOPC unanimously made the following findings.

A. Tactics

The BOPC found Officer A and B’s tactics to warrant a tactical debrief

B. Drawing/Exhibiting/Holstering

The BOPC found Officer A’s drawing and exhibition of a firearm to be in policy.

C. Use of Force

The BOPC found Officer A’s use of force to be in policy.

Basis for Findings

A. Tactics

In its analysis of this incident, the BOPC identified the following tactical considerations:

The Warrant Service Tactical Plan Report states that there was a large Rottweiler dog on the premises. The Warrant Service Tactical Plan Report also states that a fire extinguisher was deployed for this incident. It would have been prudent for either Officer A or B to have had the fire extinguisher readily available when they searched the storage area, knowing that there was a dog on the premises. In this instance, although there were identified areas for improvement, the tactical considerations did not individually or collectively unjustifiably and substantially deviate from approved Department tactical training.

B. Drawing/Exhibiting/Holstering

In this situation, a dog unexpectedly charged toward Officer A while growling and baring its teeth, resulting in Officer A drawing his service pistol. It was reasonable for Officer A to believe that the attacking dog presented a threat of serious bodily injury and that the situation had escalated to the point that lethal force may become necessary to defend himself. The BOPC found Officer A’s drawing and exhibiting to be in policy.

C. Use of Force

In this incident, the charging dog presented a threat of serious bodily injury to Officer A. After realizing that there was no available cover or avenue of escape from the dog, the situation escalated to the point that lethal force was necessary. The BOPC found Officer A’s use of lethal force to be in policy.
