

THE LOS ANGELES POLICE DEPARTMENT PRESENTS
STOP HATE AND RESPECT EVERYONE (S.H.A.R.E.)
TOLERANCE

Background

The Stop Hate and Respect Everyone (S.H.A.R.E.) Tolerance program was developed by the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department and their partners to combat and reduce hate crimes. The Sheriff's S.H.A.R.E. program targets an audience of ninth and tenth graders. The Los Angeles Police Department, Hate Crimes Unit, adopted and customized the S.H.A.R.E. program for a younger audience of fourth – eighth grade students, an age category where students are most impressionable. Our goal is to prevent our youth from committing hate crimes and learning the importance of respecting and accepting each others' differences. Ideally, these students will have the ability to share what they learned in the S.H.A.R.E. program and pass it on to their peers as they move up into junior high and high school. They will have the ability to react to situations and make better decisions based on the instruction they receive in this program. Additionally, the SHARE Tolerance Program is also being presented to the students' parents.
